Five Enter Pleas of Guilty and Two Stand Trial, with the Usual Result.

The trial of Andrew Homer was resumed in the Third District Court, yesterday morning, E. A. Franks being the first witness called. He testified that he was a deputy marshal at the time the defendant was arrested, and assisted in making the arrest. He found the defendant in an enclosure near the residence of the second wife; defendant was engaged in plowing when arrested; had no conversation with him as to the ownership of the place; told defendant that he was satisfied that Deputy Cannon had served papers on Petra, the reputed third wife, and that he had better assist in serving the witnesses; defendant told him that Petra was his third wife; they then went to Petra's house, and found Mr. Cannon there; they then went to Annie's house and defendant called her out, and told her that he had been arrested. No inducements were held out by either witness or Cannon for the defendant to make any statement; Cannon told him that any statement he made would be used against him, if necessary. Cannon asked defendant why he had separated from his first wife, and he replied that he married Annie and they could not get on very well, and that he married Petra because Annie bore him no children; the first wife, he said, was living at the Park.

On cross-examination, witness said he did not speak Danish. Defendant spoke very poor English, but was able to make himself understood. Bowman Cannon was then called, and testified that he was a deputy marshal when the defendant was arrested. He went to Petra's house to serve papers. He corroborated the testimony of Mr. Franks in regard to telling defendant that any statement made by him would be used against him.

This was all the evidence offered, and the jury was charged by the court.

After retiring for a few minutes, the jury brought in a verdict of guilty. Sentence was set for September 30th at 2 p.m.

The case of the United States vs.

JAMES M. FISHER,

charged with unlawful cohabitation, was then taken up.

A jury was called and being accepted by both sides, was sworn, and the indictment charging the defendant with having lived with Edith Fisher and Lydia Rank Fisher as his wives between January 1st, 1885, and May 15th, 1887, was read.

Edith Fisher was the first witness, but as she was the lawful wife of the defendant, she declined to testify, and was excused.

Lydia A. Rank Fisher was then called. She testified that she had lived at Mill Creek for thirty-five years; was married to defendant and was still his wife; she had five children, the oldest being 10 and the youngest about 1 year old; defendant took his meals with her, but roomed at her brother-in-law's; still regarded herself as defendant's wife; was acquainted with Edith Fisher; she is regarded as the first wife of the defendant; she lives about half a mile from witness' house and has seven or eight children, all of whom bear the name of Fisher; witness lived on the farm of defendant; supposed that he had a wife living when he married her; married him eighteen years ago; she had lived in the same house with Edith; defendant had not lived with Edith for seven or eight years, during which time he had lived with witness only; was on speaking terms with Edith.

Edward Ellis was the next witness. He testified that he lived in this city; had known defendant for two or three years; knew Edith Fisher; had met her at Mill Creek since January, 1885, and had been at her house about once a month during the dates named in the indictment; had seen defendant in her yard once or twice, but held no conversation with him in regard to his first wife. Lydia's children were known by the name of Fisher. The names of Lydia and Edith were separate. Never saw the wives visiting each other.

E. A. Franks was then called, and testified that he had assisted with Mr. Pratt in making the arrest of defendant, who was found at his stable. Pratt served the warrant on him, and witness served the subpoena on the first wife. The defendant said that Edith was his first wife.

Cross examined—Mr. Pratt told defendant that any statement made by him would be used against him. This was all the evidence offered, and arguments were made by LeGrand Young for the defense and by Mr. Peters for the prosecution, after which the Court charged the jury, who brought in a verdict of guilty. Sentence was set for September 29th.

OTHER BUSINESS.

United States vs. John A. Marchant, unlawful cohabitation; plea of not guilty withdrawn and plea of guilty entered. Sentence set for September 30th, at 2 p.m.

United States vs. Joseph C. Perry, unlawful cohabitation; plea of not guilty withdrawn and plea of guilty entered. Sentence set for September 30th, at 2 p.m.

United States vs. Alexander Bill, unlawful cohabitation; plea of not guilty withdrawn and plea of guilty entered. Sentenced to six months' imprisonment and a fine of $100 and costs.

United States vs. James Welch, unlawful cohabitation; plea of not guilty withdrawn and plea of guilty entered. Sentence set for October 15th, at 2 p.m.

The People vs. Ah Toi, a Chinaman; burglary. E. M. Allison appointed by the court to defend, and trial set for 2 p.m. to-day.

THE TABERNACLE CHOIR.They Have a Most Pleasing Out at Provo.

The Tabernacle choir excursion to Provo yesterday was a huge success. The outgoing train at 7.30 carried nearly 300 of the choir and friends. They arrived in Provo at 9.35, and previous to this time, a committee of Provo's citizens had met the visitors at American Fork, and on reaching the garden City another committee, headed by a band, appeared. The excursionists were taken to the Theatre and from there dispatched to the homes of the people of Provo, where they were most hospitably entertained. In the afternoon a concert was given at the Theatre, when the following programme was rendered:

1—Overture, "The Seven Sisters"
2—Chorus, "Thanks be to God"
3—Song, W. H. Foster
4—Guitar Solo, W. M. Foster
5—Song, Mrs. Julia Silverwood
6—Duet, W. H. Foster and Thos. Butler
7—Song, Miss Lizzie Thomas
8—Duet, Miss S. Lee and E. Beesley
9—Song and Chorus, "Come with Me"
PART II.
10—Concert Solo and Concert March
11—Part Song, J. Keddington and Orchestra
12—"Within a Mile of Edinboro," Choir
13—Duet, Mrs. Bruce Parsley
14—Violin Solo, W. E. Welch
15—Xylophone, A. Beesley
16—"The Roll Call," Beesley Band
17—Duet, Lizzie Thomas and A. Beesley
18—Finale, Choir

A number of the excursionists returned last evening, but the majority will remain over until the tickets expire.

LEGAL NOTICE.

In the Probate Court in and for Salt Lake County, Territory of Utah.

In the Matter of the Estate of Isaac Hunt, deceased.

Order appointing time and place for settlement of final account and to hear petition for distribution.

ON READING AND FILING THE PETITION of Isaac Hunt, administratrix of the estate of Isaac Hunt, deceased, setting forth that she has filed her final account of her administration upon said estate in this Court; that all the debts and expenses have been fully paid; and that a portion of said estate remains to be divided among the heirs of said deceased, and praying among other things for an order allowing said final account and of distribution of the residue of said estate among the persons entitled.

It is ordered that all persons interested in the estate of the said Isaac Hunt, deceased, be and appear before the Probate Court of the County of Salt Lake, at the Court Room of said Court, in the County of Salt Lake, on the 25th day of October, 1887, at 10 o'clock a.m., and there to show cause why an order allowing said final account and of distribution should not be made of the residue of said estate among the heirs and devisees of the said Isaac Hunt, deceased, according to law.

It is further ordered that the Clerk of said Court do and cause to be posted in three public places in Salt Lake County and published in the SALT LAKE HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulated in Salt Lake County, this 20th day of September, 1887, at 10 o'clock a.m., and there to show cause why an order allowing said final account and of distribution should not be made of the residue of said estate among the heirs and devisees of the said Isaac Hunt, deceased, according to law.

ELIAS A. SMITH, Probate Judge.

Dated September 20th, 1887.

TERRITORY OF UTAH, County of Salt Lake.

I, John C. Cutler, Clerk of the Probate Court in and for the County of Salt Lake, in the Territory of Utah, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of order appointing time and place for settlement of final account and for distribution in the matter of the estate of Isaac Hunt, deceased, as appears of record in my office. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court, this 20th day of September, A. D. 1887.

JOHN C. CUTLER, Probate Clerk.
